THE CHAPLAINCY

(Background History)

During times of turmoil and war, mankind always looks to religion and religious figures for comfort. Both ancient and modern societies have turned to religion and communities have extended the comfort of religion to those serving in the heat of battle. Priests and other religious figures petitioned gods and spirits for victory in war. The Scriptures often refer to priests accompanying troops into battle. (see: Deut. 20: 2-4; Joshua 6: 2-5).

The modern chaplaincy's roots and origin are essentially in the medieval church. The word chaplain dates from this period. A fourth century story tells of the pagan Roman soldier called Martin of Tours. As Martin and his men were returning from the battlefield in the middle of a severe winter, they met a shivering beggar at the city gate of Amiens. Martin had compassion on the beggar. He cut his cloak in two parts and gave one to the beggar. That night he had a vision of Christ wearing the beggar's cloak. As a result, Martin converted to Christianity. Martin enraged Emperor Julian by saying, "Hitherto I have served you as a soldier; allow me now to become a soldier to God..." The Emperor later released him from the army. He was baptized and in 371, the people of Tours were so impressed by his holy life and miracles, they made him their Bishop.

Martin of Tours later became the patron saint of France and his cloak, considered a holy relic, was carried into battle by Frankish kings. This cloak was called in Latin the "cappa." Its portable shrine was called the "cappalla" and its caretaker priest, the "cappellanus". Eventually, all clergy affiliated with the military were called "capellani," or in French, "chapelains," hence chaplains. The Council of Ratisbon (742) first officially authorized the use of chaplains for armies, but prohibited "the servants of God" from bearing arms or fighting.

However, religious figures in this era often went into battle as fighting men with the army. The conflict between the religious function and the military role can be seen in the career of the patron saint of military chaplains, St. John Capistrano, who besides serving as a Church Diplomat led the army at the Battle of Belgrade in 1456. This European tradition extended to colonial America where the chaplain both fought alongside and ministered to his neighbors in the militia. The tradition in colonial America of the fighting chaplain began changing. After the Civil War, chaplains were no longer permitted to carry weapons. And today, chaplains are supposed to be issued a Geneva Convention Identity Card. Chaplains are ordained clergy, endorsed by their faith group to serve all people, regardless of religious or non-religious affiliation.

THE UNITED STATES MILITARY CHAPLAINCY

THE ARMY: Chaplains had no role in the United States Army until 1791. However, colonial clergymen frequently raised military units from their own congregations and communities, and often led them in battle. A number of New England clerics served at Concord. Some even shouldered their muskets and fought alongside their fellow soldiers.

The first appointed Army Chaplain was Rev. John Hurt in 1791. He had already served seven years during the Revolutionary War. "The history of the Chaplaincy from this time on (until the Civil War) is full of uncertainties."

During the War of 1812, Chaplain James J. Wilmer was the only chaplain known to have died during this war. During the Civil War the Army Chaplaincy developed many procedures still in place. Most chaplains became less a “fighting parson,” and more “spiritual” in their emphasis. The Civil War witnessed for the first time, a large number of Roman Catholic chaplains in the field. It was also during the Civil War that we read of the first Jewish chaplains and the first Black and Indian chaplains. During the Civil War Four Army Chaplains were awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

The act of 1883 mandated that the chaplain should also “perform the duties of schoolmaster” at the Post. Additionally, chaplains generally held services in civilian settlements; established Indian congregations; officiated at functions; visited the sick, prisoners and soldiers in barracks; served as post gardeners; and, occasionally as legal counsel.

World War I and II had thousands of chaplains from various faith groups serving the spiritual needs of the fighting men. Today, the Army Chaplains continue to serve the men and women of the United States Army, National Guard, and Reserves with spiritual and moral support.

THE NAVY: The Navy Chaplaincy dates back to the Continental Navy. What was critical was that the Continental Congress adopted regulations which provided a place for religion and the chaplain in the Navy. Using the guidelines of the “Mother Country,” Divine Services were written into the Navy Regulations. However, few ships were authorized to be built and thus there were few Navy Chaplains. Rev. Benjamin Balch was the first Chaplain known to have served in the Continental Navy. From 1785 to 1798, there was no American Navy and, therefore, no Navy Chaplains.

The first Navy Chaplain to die as the result of enemy action was Chaplain John L. Lenhart, who was on board the Cumberland when she was rammed and sunk by the CSS Virginia (formerly called the Merrimack).

With a new edition of the Navy Regulations in 1802, additional duties of chaplains stated that they should “perform the duty of schoolmaster, instructing midshipmen...” The Navy Chaplain had to be a teacher of writing, mathematics, navigation, and whatever else they might need to make them proficient, besides his religious duties. That did not change much until 1906 when the Navy established certain guidelines that eliminated the teaching function and established procedures and qualifications for Navy Chaplains and the establishment of the Chaplain Corps.

Navy Chaplains have served with distinction during WWI, WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Desert Storm, and Iraqi Freedom. Navy Chaplains provide ministry to all the sea services, including, the Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Sea Bees, and Merchant Marine

To recount the history of the Chaplain Corps and omit two of its most revered Navy chaplains would be a grave mistake. Chaplains Joseph T. O’Callahan and Vincent Capodanno were both awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

THE AIR FORCE: Before 1939, the Army’s air arm was a fledgling organization. By the end of the end of WW II, the Army Air Forces had become a major military organization comprised of many air forces, commands, divisions, wings, groups, and squadrons, plus an assortment of other organizations. The National Security Act of 1947 became law on July 26, 1947. It created the Department of the Air Force, headed by a Secretary of the Air Force. From this beginning grew the Air Force Chaplaincy. At first the Air Force Chaplains received their training at the Army School and eventually established their own school.

TODAY'S CHAPLAIN

Today, the Chaplain is a highly respected and integral part of all branches of the military. You will find the Chaplain in many of the Fortune 500 companies of our great nation, as well as in police departments, fire departments, hospitals and emergency crews. Often called upon to minister to families in times of grief, marital, and family situations. The Chaplain is a friend and colleague who can be counted on when the need arises.

One of the modern day Chaplain's major purposes is to help individuals grow in their relationship to the Creator God and to one another. The Chaplain helps to develop an environment in which those who are served can grow personally, spiritually, and morally.

The Chaplain is non-denominational and non-sectarian. This means the Chaplain cannot pick and choose those he or she will minister to, but regardless of race, religious belief, or color, the Chaplain will do everything possible to minister to the needy.

POST CHAPLAIN

You were elected to the office of Post Chaplain and you have an important responsibility to your Post. Whether you have been selected for your religious training, or past VFW experiences, you are expected to be the spiritual advisor to your Post and its members.

As Post Chaplain, you are encouraged to perform your duties to the utmost of your abilities. Feel free to utilize this handbook in the performance of your duties.

PURPOSE OF CHAPLAINS

The office of Chaplain is not just to provide a "religious" officer to the organization to offer prayers at meetings. The Chaplain has loftier purposes:

- 1- To help persons grow as individuals and particularly in their relationship with God.
- 2- To help persons grow in their relationships to one another and become a true comrade to one another.
- 3- To serve as a reminder of the transcendent in life,

- 4- To develop an environment with which comrades are encouraged in their personal and collective moral and spiritual growth.
- 5- To remind all Americans that God is the source of all rights and privileges.

We must be reminded that the Veterans of Foreign Wars is comprehensive in nature, embracing all religions and faith groups within its ranks. The Chaplain, being non-sectarian and non-denominational, must minister to the spiritual needs of all without regard to either affiliation or non-affiliation. For many people, the only religious contact they will have will be with the Chaplain. Chaplains will need to provide ministry to people wherever there is a need.

QUALIFICATIONS OF CHAPLAINS

The qualifications for the Veterans of Foreign Wars Chaplain are not academic or ecclesiastical. A VFW Chaplain candidate is not required to be a “professional” clergy person (most Post Chaplains are not). The qualifications are simple yet important:

1. A willingness to serve the office.
2. A commitment to provide a Chaplain’s ministry.
3. Should have a good self image and a positive attitude
4. A caring person.
5. A desire to help people.
6. A sense of spiritual maturity.
7. The ability to keep things confidential.
8. Willing to be neutral and objective when settling disputes.
9. Voice projection and the ability to read well in public.
10. Chaplains should be proud of their office and determined to do a good job.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CHAPLAIN

No matter where the people served are coming from, they perceive the Chaplain as their Pastor. Therefore, Chaplains are called to nurture the living, care for the dying, and honor the dead. In a non-sectarian manner, you should be prepared to listen to your fellow comrades and their family members, and provide aid and spiritual comfort in times of stress, sickness, or bereavement.

1. SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE: The Chaplain is available to help individuals and their families with their spiritual needs.
2. ASSISTANCE IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS: In times of crises such as hospitalization, injury, or death, the Chaplain will help and provide assistance to veterans and their families.

3. CONDUCTING/ASSISTING AT FUNERALS: The Chaplain is available to assist families with funeral arrangements and to officiate at the service or assist the family minister. Additionally, the Chaplain can help with organizing an honor guard, having a bugler present at the cemetery, and having a presentation of the flag as a token of service and honor on behalf of the VFW Post and fellow veterans of military service.
4. WEDDINGS: The Chaplain is available to assist with weddings. When properly credentialed, the Chaplain is available to conduct weddings.
5. COUNSELING: The Chaplain is available to provide pastoral care and counsel and when necessary to help veterans and their families find appropriate resources for dealing with such issues as post-traumatic stress disorder, substance abuse, or other critical incident stress management problems.
6. VISITATION: Visitation with veterans and their families to provide comfort and encouragement is an important function of the Chaplain.
7. ATTENDING FUNCTIONS: The Chaplain may be called upon to represent the Post at official functions or public meetings, and asked to give invocations, dedicatory prayers, or benedictions. Participation in Parades, 9/11 Memorial Services, Veterans Day Programs/Services, and POW/MIA Services will also be expected.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Work with your Service Officer to help members and their families receive available VA Benefits.
2. Your Post Commander or Officers may come to you in confidence. Remember the privileged communication you are having is for your ears only. Keep such things confidential and uphold the high ideals of the organization in any advice you offer.
3. You should be prepared to offer the ritual prayers at each meeting of the Post. You will also be called upon to offer appropriate prayers at the initiation of new members; installation of officers; the dedication of a building, monument, or colors; or at the memorial service of a comrade. All such services are commemorated by use of the VFW or Ladies Auxiliary ritual.
4. Being a member of the Post's Memorial Team will provide an opportunity for contact with the grieving family and thus provides a caring ministry to them.
5. Use the persuasion of your office to promote harmony and unity in the Post.
6. Provide inspirational articles for the post newsletter.

REMEMBER!

1. The Chaplain, being on the staff of the Commander, is to serve as the spiritual advisor for all members of the Post.
2. The Chaplain should be present at all Post events.
3. The Chaplain offers all the prayers at the Post meeting, but that is not the total work or the main work of the Chaplain.
4. The Chaplain should always be aware of the ecumenical nature of the Post's membership and offer appropriate non-sectarian prayers.
5. Utilize this booklet and the Chaplain's Handbook. The prayers are intended to provide the Chaplain with a guide to offering prayers. Modify the prayers to your need at the event or to wording that would be more appropriate.
6. Believe that the chaplaincy is essential to the work of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The position is an important one and each Chaplain should take pride in serving God, Country, Veterans, and their families.

(Opening of Convention Meeting) Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we ask Your blessing upon the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its work (in this State). We gather today (tonight) at this convention/conference to hear reports from the many committees which plan our programs and undertakings. May we learn from these reports not only what we are doing but what we must do to continue as effective servants of our veterans, our God and Country, and our community. Teach us anew the importance of working together as a team with a common goal. Warn us again against letting petty political concerns and self interests cloud our judgment. Encourage us yet once more with a vision of an America at peace both within our borders and without. Guide

You are our God, and to You we would ascribe all glory and honor, now and forever. Amen.

(Opening of Post/District/Convention Meeting) O God our Heavenly Father, we pray that You will be with us at this time to guide our work in this (convention/meeting). Grant us the wisdom to seek Your will in all that we undertake, and the courage to follow in the direction You would have us to go. In seeking to serve our God and Country, may our efforts be of benefit to our fellow veterans and all the people of our community. We pray for peace, and we pray for all who serve the public that they may discharge their duties capably and with honor and dignity. We pray for our comrades and for all our fellow citizens that we may enjoy an even-handed justice in all our dealings; that we may always know the blessings of freedom purchased for us at so great a cost; that we may with loyalty serve this land in a true spirit of Democracy. Bless the United States of America, and grant that this Nation may live in peace among the nations of the world. We pray also, O Lord, for our comrades in hospitals or in homes, who are suffering from mental and physical illness or disability. Comfort them with a sense of Your continuing presence, cheer them with the knowledge of Your love, and grant them the blessings of health and happiness. All this we ask in Your Holy Name. Amen.

(Opening of Worship Service) Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the presence of Your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love You and glorify Your holy name. Amen.

(Opening of Church Worship Service) O God our Father, You have commanded the light to shine out of darkness and awakened us again to praise Your goodness and to ask Your favor. Accept now the sacrifice of our worship and thanksgiving. Make us to be children of the light and of the day, heirs of Your everlasting inheritance. Remember, O God, Your whole church and all our brothers (and sisters) who stand in need of Your favor on land or sea, in air or space. May our lives ever praise Your wonderful and holy name. Amen.

(Opening of Worship Service) Ever loving and Eternal God, Source of the light that never dims and of the love that never fails, Light of our lives, Father of our spirits, draw near us, and by the remembrance of Your ancient mercies, by the ministry of Your church, teach us and lead us nearer to You. By all our conflicts, by all our aspirations, by all our fears, by all our joys and sorrows, by life and death itself, teach us and lead us nearer to You. Amen.

(Opening of Worship Service) O God, who put into our hearts such deep desires that we cannot be at peace until we rest in You: mercifully grant that the longing of our souls may not go unsatisfied because of any unrighteousness of life that may separate us from You. Open our minds to the counsels of eternal wisdom; breathe into our souls the peace which passes understanding. Increase our hunger and thirst for righteousness, and feed us, we beseech You, with the bread of heaven. Give us grace to seek first Your Kingdom, and help to grow as You add all things needful. Amen.

SPECIAL DAYS AND SEASONS

(Advent) Lord, You have given us the great hope that Your Kingdom shall come on earth, and Your Son has taught is to pray for its coming. Make us ready now to give thanks for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when Your will shall be done on earth as it is in Heaven. We ask this in the name of our Lord. Amen.

(Christmas) Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we give You thanks that in the fullness of time the Light dawned on a dark world and Your Son was born in Bethlehem. We praise You that He came and that He shall come again. We confess that the doors of our hearts are too low to receive the King of Glory. We are too indifferent to go meet Him. Come, we pray, and by Your Holy Spirit banish from us all that resists His entrance into our hearts. Make us, O God, a people who watch and pray for the day of His appearing. Even so, come, Lord Jesus; come quickly! Amen.

(Epiphany) O God of the guiding star which brought the Gentile kings to worship the Christ-child: strengthen and encourage us who follow the star, and lead us into all dark places of the earth, and let the light of Christ shine through us. May that day come when all men shall pay due homage to the King of kings, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Palm Sunday) O Lord Jesus Christ, as on this day we recall Your triumphal entry into Jerusalem, enter our hearts, we pray, and subdue them wholly unto Your will. O King of grace and glory, come into our lives with all Your strength, gentleness, and goodness. We acknowledge You as Savior and redeemer, give You our joyous homage, and pledge never-dying loyalty. Amen.

(Lent) O God, by the example of Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, You have taught us the greatness of true humility, and now has called us to watch with Him in His suffering. Help us to take the towel and basin and in humbleness of spirit to wash the feet of those who most need our ministry. Give us the graciousness to serve one another in all lowliness and thus fulfill the law of love on the Name of Your Servant, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Passion) Almighty God, You have revealed to us in the life and teaching of Your Son the true way to a good life may lead to the cross, and the reward of faithfulness and obedience to Your will may be a crown of thorns. Give us the grace to learn these hard lessons. May we take up our cross and follow Christ in strength of patience and constancy of faith; may we have such fellowship with Him in His sorrow that we may know the secret of His strength and peace, and see, in our darkest hour, the shining of Eternal Light. Amen.

(Easter) Almighty God, Source of all life, by whose power our Lord Jesus Christ was raised from the dead; we praise You, we give You thanks for this great victory over sin and death. The resurrection of Your Son, our Savior, has opened to us the door of abundant and everlasting life. Our despair is changed to triumph, our fears to hope. We are grateful. Accept our thanks, O Lord, and may we prove our gratitude by selfless service in behalf of all those who need our love and care. May we show them the Risen Christ in all we do. In His living Name we pray.

Amen.

LABOR DAY

On this Labor Day try something different - pray for rights and justice for all who work and the dignity and the success of all who are seeking work. Amen

Creating God, You made the heavens and the earth and your work was good and we praise you. May we continue your good work through our own labor - helping to create your kingdom on earth as in heaven. We pray on this Labor Day for all those who work. Whether in the school, the factory, the mines, the armed services, the business office, government or on the farm may all workers carry themselves with honor, know the respect of their managers, be kept safe from harm, and be well paid for hard work so that they might provide for their family and loved ones. God help us not to pit workers of one nation against those of another nation so that one must suffer if another thrives. Rather help us to create work in concert so that workers of all nations might mutually prosper with decent wages for decent work. Today we also pray for those who are unemployed or underemployed. May they not become discouraged; may they continue to find ways to learn and grow in their time out of work. Help us as a nation to continue to provide for those who are suffering from unemployment so that they do not lose hearth and home. May those out of work experience tangible evidence of our support and may meaningful work come quickly. Amen

May all the labors of our lives benefit your creation so that we might be co-creators of your world filled with peace and enough for all. Amen

BENEDICTIONS & CLOSING PRAYERS

O God of people and nations, we pause at the close of this meeting to acknowledge again Your sovereignty over our lives and our Country. We remember before You our comrades now departed this life. We honor them for their loyalty to God and Country, for their good deeds, and for their friendship. May they rest in peace and may the good works You have begun in them be brought to perfection, that our Nation may be strong and our people secure and happy. Give to us safe journey to our homes. Amen.

Almighty God, receive us in this evening hour as we offer ourselves over to You in body, soul and spirit for the blessings of this day. We thank You for those who have led us so well in this dinner/banquet. As we invoke Your blessing upon us, give us a still and quiet heart and mind. We thank You, O God, for this food which reminds us of Your care over us and pray that it will strengthen us for the doing of Your good pleasure and give us power to render better service to You and our fellow veterans. Amen.

Our Heavenly Father, we ask for Your benediction to rest on us this day. As You have graciously preserved our nation through the years and have led us in wondrous ways, grant that we may be worthy of our high calling a Nation. Make us reverent in the use of freedom, just in the exercise of power, and generous in the protection of weakness. Inspire the men and women who direct our nation, that they may guide it wisely and well. Especially do we pray for our Commander-in-Chief (Commander), as he moves forward with the program for the Veterans of Foreign Wars this year. Grant him and us that in all our duties, Your help; in all perplexities, Your counsel; in all danger, Your protection; and in all sorrow, and Your peace. Amen.

Let us go forth into the world in peace and dedicated to Your service, O Lord. Let us hold fast to that which is good, render to no person evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the needy and the afflicted, and honor all people. Let us love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of His Spirit. And may God's blessing be upon us and remain with us always. Amen.

God grant to the living, grace; to the departed, rest; to the Nation, peace and concord; to us all Your servants the promise of everlasting life, light to guide us on our way, courage to support us, and Your blessing to unite us in service to You our God and this our Country. Amen.

Almighty Father, help us to remember that freedom does not automatically perpetuate itself, that we have to work at it, nurture it, protect it, and pray for it. Freedom, like faith, needs our attention and our cooperation. Lord, be with us now to strengthen us; about us, to keep us; above us, to protect us; beneath us, to uphold us; before us, to direct us; behind us, to keep us from straying; and 'round about us, to defend us. Blessed are You, O Father, forever and ever. Amen.

Almighty and Merciful God, we remember before You in this moment our departed comrades. We recall with reverence the good needs they accomplished. We honor these who fought a good fight in a just cause—comrades both in war and in peace who have served this Country with dignity and with honor. May they rest in peace. (a moment of silence) May we consecrate our hearts and lives to You our God and to this our Country; and to the ideals and principles and hopes of those whom we honor, who have served faithfully and are now at rest. Amen.

Our Heavenly Father, with heads uncovered and bowed in tribute to our fallen comrades, we bring this meeting to a close. Before we part our separate ways, we pause to think of our members who are experiencing difficult times. For them and their families, we pray for strength and courage. In the silence of this moment, we dedicate ourselves anew to our God and our Country. Amen.

Glory be to You our Lord and our God as we behold the blessings You have given us as citizens of the United States of America. We thank You Lord, for this blessed and bountiful Land. Help us to renew our loyalty to this great Country and enable us to rededicate ourselves in faith to Thy service. We pray Lord, in Your Holy Name. Amen.

May the Lord our God bless us all present here, to memorialize those who lived and died to preserve liberty and freedom in our nation and in the world. And may the Lord our God remember all those whose sacrifice gave this nation its greatness, progress, and riches. May our memory and all of those who served in the armed forces, be an honorable one, full of thanksgiving to the Lord; and remember with much love and mercy those who died in the service of our Country, whether on the air, or on the land or in the sea. Be with us all and provide us with traveling mercy as we return to our homes. Amen.

Let us depart in peace, and in love and charity with our neighbors. May we be joined together in the common goal of service to our God and our Country. Let us drive safely and carefully to our homes, and may God's blessing be with us all. Amen.

May the strength of God sustain us; may the power of God preserve us; may the hands of God protect us; may the way of God direct us; may the love of God go with us this day (night) and forever. Amen.

The Lord bless us and keep us.
The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us.
The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace, this day (night) and forever more. Amen.

LOYALTY DAY PRAYER

Prayer for our Nation

I lift up this prayer to the God of gods, the Lord of lords, the King of kings and the sovereign ruler of all nations. We are here together on this Loyalty Day morning to affirm our loyalty to the United States of America. As good citizens we affirm that we hold our citizenship as a sacred trust between one another and with you; for you alone are the giver of life and liberty; and no pursuit of happiness will ever find success apart from an abiding faith and trust in your mercy, grace and love.

For your glory I ask that those who lead us in the courts of government might be blessed with wisdom, humility and courage to do on our behalf what is right in your eyes. You alone are the judge of history and you alone know what is good and true and right. Forgive us as individual citizens and as a nation for our frequent failure to do justice, to love mercy and to walk humbly at your side.” By the power of your Holy Spirit we ask that you would work in and through us “to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity.”

Above all, we want to thank and praise you for the gifts of liberty and life that our nation was founded to protect, preserve and defend. And even as we reaffirm our loyalty to our nation we also pledge our lives and our sacred honor as tokens of our loyalty to you and your kingdom.

We yearn for that day yet to come when we will declare that “the kingdoms of this world have become your kingdom, and you shall reign forever and ever.” Amen.

MEMORIAL DAY PRAYERS

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, in Your hands are the living and the dead; we give You thanks for all those, our comrades and sisters, who have laid down their lives in the service of our Country. May they rest in peace, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May the good work of seeking justice for the oppressed and peace for all mankind be rewarded with success, that their sacrifices shall not have been in vain. And may we never fail to remember the awesome cost of the freedom which we enjoy. Amen.

(Concluding prayer) Almighty God, our gratitude for Your generosity grows with each passing day. We acknowledge this day’s special blessings. We have honored those who now enjoy Your eternal embrace. We ask Your blessings on all that are present here.. Especially do we seek Your consolation for those recently bereaved. May Your grace be with them and with us now and forever. And, if it by Your will, may we all be favored to gather again in these circumstances and in this company before another year has passed. Amen

O Lord Almighty, remember those who lived and died fighting to protect the dignity and the freedom of mankind. Let our spirits be proud of them. Let our hearts be compassionate, and our minds clear and determined in giving them honor and respect. And let us be dependent on the loving kindness of the Lord our God. As we remember the departed, let us be true soldiers in war and on peace. Let us be courageous protectors and true guardians of freedom. Let us be the true masters of brotherly love. O Lord, guide us in the way of moral responsibility; enlighten us—who are true believers in ethics and justice. Let this day be a day of commemoration and honor to those who sacrificed their lives in order to give us liberty and our Nation security. Remember them, O Lord, in Your mercy, and have compassion on us. Make us a generation of wisdom, discipline, and faith we pray in Your Holy Name. Amen.

Eternal and ever-loving God, we thank You for the privilege of meeting on this hallowed day in this free nation to honor our noble dead and to re-dedicate our lives to You and our Country. We thank You that we are permitted to live through days of challenge, for the hours of the testing of our loyalty to our national heritage, and for our devotion to the high ideals for which others have lived and died. Bless, O God, the thousands of disabled veterans in our hospitals today and also the homeless veterans in our land. Relieve pain, ease their suffering, and give them cheer and hope. Help us to respond gladly and generously to their needs of body and spirit. We pay for our men who may still be in prisons in a strange and foreign land. Give to them courage in the face of hopelessness and comfort in the midst of loneliness. On this day of sacred memory, we ask for grace and power to live truer lives, to be better servants of the living God, finer fathers and mothers, nobler sons and daughters, and more loyal citizens of this great Country and of Your world. Lord, grant that we may yet see the day when war and fear of war shall no longer be; the day when peace shall become our common possession; the day when Your will shall be done on earth as it is in Heaven. O Lord, hear our prayer for our sakes. Amen.

O Lord God of Hosts, as we gather to honor and pay respects to our comrades and sisters who have departed this life, it is fitting that we remember first our great Nation. You have given us a rich and beautiful land for our heritage. We humbly pray that we may always prove ourselves a people constantly aware of Your favor, and therefore anxious to demonstrate our gratitude in seeking to know and to do Your will. May our land be blessed with honest and productive industry, and a people of integrity who are anxious to learn and willing to respect one another. All this we ask of You, Almighty God, in Your Holy Name. Amen.

Gracious God, grant that we may appreciate and treasure the freedom that is our gift and our heritage, and that we may never forget the great price at which it was purchased for us all. We remember this day before You all who serve in the Armed Forces of our nation. Protect and defend them in the day of battle, and in the time of peace. Grant that they may serve with honor and dignity both to Your great glory and to the credit of this Nation.

We ask also that You will watch over the veterans of this land, inspiring them to serve You and this Country in ever new and creative ways. Comfort our ill and wounded comrades who languish in hospitals or homes. Lighten their burdens, relieve their suffering and pain, and restore to them the blessings of health again. We also pray for those who have given their lives in the service of our Country (moment of silence), and for those, our fellow veterans who have served this Nation both in time of battle and in time of peace. May light perpetual shine upon them. May the good work which You have begun in them be brought to perfection, that this land may prosper and that there may be lasting peace throughout our world. All this we ask You, Almighty Father, in Your Holy Name. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR DECEASED COMRADES

Heavenly Father, we are gathered here to commemorate those among Your servants who have been called to Your bosom in the Land of Light. We pray that Your mercy and justice have made right their human failings and faults. We pray that whatever justice was denied them in this vale of tears has been granted them a hundredfold. We pray that whatever comforts they were denied in this life, whatever evil they endured, may now rebound to their everlasting happiness.

We are thankful for their companionship and association in this life. By their efforts we are assured security and strength. Because they served well, we are proud to call them our own. We ask that, following in their footsteps, we may continue in Your service until Your summons comes. Then, in the knowledge that we have striven to observe Your councils and precepts, may be judged worthy to be united with them and with You forever in Heaven. Amen.

O God of mercy, peace, and love, we remember before You in this moment our comrade (sister) and friend (name). We recall with gratitude and respect all that he (she) stood for in this life. Help us to live in the companionship of his (her) spirit. May we be kind to the friends and family he (she) loved; devoted to the community in which he (she) lived; and loyal to the causes which he (she) served. Thus, in our life, may he (she) live on, to our great comfort, to the betterment of Your creation, and to the furthering of Your most Holy Will. Amen.

O Lord our God, we ask that You will comfort all who are bereaved with a spirit of faith and courage. May they remember, giving thanks, for the love and joy they shared in an earthly relationship. May they be comforted with the sure knowledge of a joyful reunion with those they love in Your Everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, You have shown us that death is but the gateway to a more glorious life, and that we must not fear its coming; and we know, also, that neither life nor death can separate us from Your love. Assure us yet again that our comrade/sister (name) departed is not lost to us, but sharing new life with You in the Kingdom of our Father, where we shall in Your good time be reunited. We know him/ her to be with You forever. Amen.

Strengthen and comfort, O Lord, all who mourn for the loss of loves ones now departed this life. Some have died in the service of our Country; and some, having served this Nation both in war and in peace, are now at rest. Be with those who mourn in their sorrow. Support them in their loneliness. Grant that they may know that nothing in life not even death can separate them from Your love declared so eloquently in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Eternal Father, we call upon You for all who mourn the loss of those near and dear to them. Be to those in sorrow a strong support in their loneliness and a comforter in their time of grief. Be ever near them, draw them into closer fellowship with You, and grant them sure trust and confidence in Your Fatherly care. Amen.

O Lord our comfort and help in time of need, You have taught us that nothing can separate us from Your love, and that all souls are Yours. Grant that we may come to know this increasingly as we draw nearer to You in faith and love. Grant also that we may be uplifted from our sorrow, so that we may more faithfully serve You our God and more effectively honor the memory of our comrade (sister) departed. Amen.

Father of us all! In the depth of our silent reverence we realize the truth of the inspired words, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." As comrade after comrade departs, we march on with our ranks grown thinner. Help us to be faithful unto You, and to one another. Look in mercy on the widows and children of our departed comrades, we beseech You, and with Your own tenderness, console and comfort those who are bereaved. Heavenly Father, bless our Country with freedom, peace, and righteousness. Through Your favor may we meet at last before Your throne in Heaven. We praise Your Great Name forever and ever. Amen.

VETERANS' DAY PRAYERS

Let us remember before our God today, those who sacrificed during times of war in order that we might have liberty and freedom and security.

- Veterans both living and dead who fought on land, in the air, and on the water;
- The men and women in labor and industry who provided the machinery and weapons of war.

Eternal God, who alone rules the destinies of nations, and who has deemed that men and women should live together in peace. We pray for those who fought a good fight and finished the course. On this day we call to remembrance those who served in far off places and have laid down their arms to march into that land of eternal peace. We also call to remembrance all veterans who served in the Armed Forces of our Nation and contributed to the greatness of our national defense. We are indeed grateful for their service and sacrifice. And, if it were not for the men and women in our factories, their victories would not have been sustained. Keep sacred all their sacrifices in our hearts. Keep holy our course in Your sight. Enkindle within us a flame of selfless, unwavering devotion to duty that we may never be found wanting in those qualities of spirit and mind which alone are able to preserve our homes, the peace of our nation, and the tranquility of the world. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

(Benediction) Our Heavenly Father, we ask for Your benediction to rest on us this day. As You have graciously preserved our Nation through the years, and have led us in wondrous ways, grant that we may be worthy of our high calling as a Nation. Amen.

Gracious God, thank You for disclosing Yourself to humanity through the ages and even now through Your love shared by Your children everywhere.

Today, Lord, we remember and honor the memory of those who sacrificed their lives in war that we might live in peace. Let our acts become living memorials to their service. In a special way call to our remembrance the many who die today in wars of liberation. We know that all is not well in the world and that it needs to be better. May we find a way of being concerned enough to understand and begin to help.

Be with our President and all the men and women who make national policy, that they may be guided by the spirit of peace. Strengthen our efforts as a leader of nations to work with other nations in deeds which will enhance the common good. Forgive us as individuals who fail in our own citizenship and increase our resolve to make tomorrow meaningful to today's children.

May we find that rededicating our lives to our Country, to the world which we are citizens and to our God, we will be strengthened and uplifted by Your Spirit. In Your Holy Name we pray.

Amen.

O Lord Almighty, remember those who died fighting to protect the dignity and the freedom of mankind. Let our hearts be compassionate and our minds clear and determined in giving them honor and respect. And let us be dependent on the loving kindness of the Lord our God. As we remember the departed, let us be courageous protectors and true guardians of freedom. Let us be the true masters of brotherly love. O Lord, guide us in the way of moral responsibility; enlighten us and make us true believers in morality and justice. Let this day be a day of commemoration and honor to all those who sacrificed in order to give us liberty, and our nation security.

Remember them, O Lord, in Your mercy, and have compassion on us. Make us a generation of wisdom, discipline, and good faith. Amen.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we ask that Your blessing be bestowed on our friends and loved ones. We thank You for this opportunity to share with them this special occasion to honor our veterans. Let us always honor the memory of those brave men and women who sacrificed so that we may experience freedom in a country that is free. Heavenly father, keep their families in Your kind care. Bless them and comfort them in their time of sorrow. Let us be reminded of Life, Liberty, Justice, Freedom, and Democracy, that we may be ever grateful to You for those veterans who gave so much for their Country. We ask Your blessing upon this program and when we depart, grant us Your continued fellowship that makes abiding peace. We ask this in Your Holy Name. Amen.

O God Eternal, before whom each generation rise and fall and pass away, we bow before You in gratitude as we remember our heritage in this, our land. We thank You for men and women whose blood is the measure of our debt in times of war, and for men and women of peace whose lives of service keep the fabric of our nation together. Save us from assuming that homage is a substitute for service. Teach us to be afraid of none but You, to speak unafraid the words of justice. Inspire us by the example of those who loved this land which we love, and who labored for a friendly world, free from hatred and bitterness. In our foreign policy and in our relationships within the Nation, help us to further only those purposes that will promote unity and justice and further the coming of Your kingdom on earth. Especially help us overcome the hatred, the cruelty, and the rejection of others who may be different than we are. We pray in Your Holy Name. Amen.

Almighty God, Father of us all! We, Your servants, turn to You for continuance of Your blessings upon us. You who have spared we veterans from the grasp of our enemies, grant us the full understandings of Your precious comfort. We thank You for the privileges of life and the blessings we enjoy through Your graciousness to our Nation, the land in which we are given the freedom of speech, religion and the pursuit of happiness. Assist us to know You better and that You are the God of the universe and our ideal. In Your mercy, may we the living find our peace. Grant us from above, this day, the challenge of high endeavor, the beauty of a humble spirit, the strong courage and will, without exertion, to continue to glorify You; praise You and love You to the end of time. Amen.

Almighty God, we stand here today to pay tribute to brave men and women, living and dead, who have served their country in the Armed Forces. Accept our thanksgiving for their sacrifices and the sacrifices of their families, which have purchased for us a free land. Cause us never to take for granted their devotion to liberty. Let our spirits be proud of them, let their hearts be compassionate, and our minds clear and determined in giving them the honor and respect they deserve. Rekindle within us a flame of selfless, unwavering devotion to duty, that we may never be found wanting in those qualities of spirit and mind which are able to preserve our homes, our communities, and the peace of our Nation. Keep our memories alive with GRATITUDE and our gratitude alive with our FAITHFULNESS to the principles which made our Nation great. Grant, we pray, joy and fulfillment to those still living; and for those who are at rest, grant Your peace. Amen.

RECOMMENDATIONS & GUIDELINES FOR INCLUSIVE PUBIC PRAYERS

“Inclusive” public prayer in a pluralistic society is effective when the person leading the prayer is sensitive to the diversity of his/her audience. Those who lead general community prayers have a responsibility to have a clear understanding about the public nature of the occasion and respectful of the makeup of the audience.

- Prayer on behalf of the entire community is most honoring of all peoples’ faith traditions when listeners from a wide range of religious practices can share the experience and when the language is non-offensive to their faith traditions.
- Inclusive public prayer is non-sectarian, general, and carefully planned to respect the ground that diverse faith traditions have in common.
- An intentional effort to pray using universal, inclusive language helps bridge the gap among the faith traditions:

For example: Using opening language about God such as: Source of All Being; Creator and Sustainer; Our Maker; and Almighty God, or using closing words like, Hear our prayer; May Goodness Flourish; In the Name of All we hold Sacred; or Amen, can help to frame the prayer so that those gathered can affirm their personal faith tradition and still participate in a community expression of reverence.

- Inclusive public prayer remains faithful to the purpose of acknowledging the Divine Presence, giving thanks, and seeking blessing, and should not be used as a forum to preach, persuade, or testify.

APPENDIX

HOSPITAL VISITATION

Chaplains of the Veterans of Foreign Wars do not need to have formal religious training in order to become an effective visitor to hospital patients. A caring personality is one of the greatest qualifications.

Preparation:

The chaplain's preparation begins with his/her own maturity and experience with God. This is the spring that feeds the streams of spirituality and waters the arid fields of their own life and ministry.

Guidelines for Visitation:

- 1- Learn the purpose of the health care facility you are visiting. Familiarize yourself with the protocol and regulations.
 - Visiting hours
 - Clergy registry, if they have one
 - If possible, meet with the resident chaplain
- 2- Respect patient and family wishes regarding visits.
- 3- Respect the privacy and nursing needs before entering the room. Check with floor nurse if patient's door is closed.
- 4- If there is more than one patient in the room, be sensitive to that person's needs.
- 5- Make your visit brief! (You are not calling on the patient to entertain them.)
- 6- Express your concern but do not inquire about their specific condition.
- 7- Listen more than talk!
- 8- Be sensitive in your physical approach to the patient; don't sit of the bed.
- 9- If the patient is asleep or medicated, don't arouse them; leave your card with a note that you called at a certain time.
- 10- Patients often will appreciate a brief prayer. Always ask before offering a prayer.
- 11- If the patient has a roommate, you might ask if he/she would like to be included in the prayer.
- 12- If practical, make a follow-up visit after they are home, or send a card. Your continual concern is a mark of your ministry.

Read Obituary

John 6:40 For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son, and believes in Him, has eternal life; and I Myself will raise him up on the last day.

Song: He The Pearly Gates Will Open

Refrain:
He the pearly gates will open, So that I may enter in;
For He purchased my redemption And forgave me all my sin.

Love divine, so great and wondrous! All my sins He then forgave;
I will sing His praise forever, For His blood, His power to save.

In life's eventide, at twilight, At His door I'll knock and wait;
By the precious blood of Jesus I shall enter heaven's gate.

And Jesus opened those pearly gates and on Sunday, May 30 Ed was welcomed into heaven.

Prayer: Our Loving Eternal Heavenly Father, as we meet this morning to remember _____, a dear brother, loved one, a friend and comrade to those present. We ask you to be the God of all comfort, and the God of all grace. Use the elements of this Memorial Service to give us perspective and hope as we face the reality of death. Amen.

Poem and Verses of Comfort Poem

There is no time that we could set for parting.
We who must remain are never ready for such pain.
Even our prayer would be: "Not yet! Not yet, dear God - -
Another day with us, Let our beloved stay."
We must believe, when falls that blow,
That wisely God has willed it so.
Edgar A. Guest

And so we turn to the Scriptures to give us comfort and hope.

In John 11:25 "Jesus said, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies;

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

¹⁶Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. ¹⁸So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.
For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

Isaiah 41:13

¹³For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, do not fear I will help you.

Meditation

Dying and death are not beautiful. Death is one of the ugly realities of life, a reality which we must all face. It separates the spirit from the body, a brother from his sisters, and a friend from friends. We are torn by the loss of the person we loved. Our gathering here this morning is to honor the memory of _____. It is also to find comfort and affirm the hope of the Gospel

When we hear of the death of a friend or loved one, even when it is expected, we grieve.

It is natural to have a REACTION.

There is the initial shock. And from there the reaction varies. Some weep - some do not.

It is OK to have a reaction – Our Lord understands. I encourage you to allow it to happen and share your feelings with the Lord.

We can REFLECT and we can REMEMBER

Concern of those who Die

1. Desire of individuals in the OT was not to have the individual lost to memory. This is one reason they desired a son - to carry on the name of the deceased.

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down – We remember him
At the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter - We remember him
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring - We remember him
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer - We remember him
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn - We remember him
At the beginning of the year and when it ends - We remember him
As long as we live, he too will live on; for Bob is a part of us and we will remember him
Memories can grow sweeter as the years go by

We REALIZE

1. How quickly life passes.

He was just here and now he is gone

At a time like this we are reminded of our own mortality. We realize once more that our days are numbered. That is why he tells us in 90:12 to “number our days” so we live them with skill.

2. We Realize that death is not the end.

- a. When death comes there is a release of the spirit from the body
- b. There is a reception in heaven

God has provided salvation for each of us. Remember John 3:16: “For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.”

God provided salvation for all. However, there is a requirement.- We have to believe and accept it.

2 Peter 1:10-11 (The Message)

10-11 “So, friends, confirm God's invitation to you, his choice of you. Don't put it off; do it now. Do this, and you'll have your life on a firm footing, the streets paved and the way wide open into the eternal kingdom of our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ.” (The Message)

Committal

In the light of these promises God has given us in His Word and in as much as it has pleased the Lord in His sovereign wisdom and purpose to take _____, from our midst, whom we have loved, we now commit his body to its final resting place to await the fulfillment of another promise of Scripture.

In a few moments we will say bye for now _____. . . .
Bye for now

Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the glorious hope and for the great consolation concerning those who sleep in Jesus as believers in Christ.

May we remember that Jesus has prepared a place for those who have placed their faith in Him, and that the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

And now for the family, for the loved ones and friends we ask:

- That precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints ;
- That there might be a casting of our care upon you to find comfort in the knowledge of what death means to _____ who is now with you; and
- That you would comfort and strengthen in the days ahead. Help the family and friends to draw strength from you.

These things we ask in the name of the King of kings and Lord of lords, even in Christ our Savior.

Benediction

May the good memories of Teddy, the peace of God, and the grace of God be with each person as we continue our journey in the days ahead.

Military Honors, if requested by family.

MILITARY HONORS AT FUNERALS

On October 5th, 1999, President Clinton signed into law the National Defense Authorization Act, Public Law 105-261. Some of the key features of the law are:

- The law mandates military participation in a Military Honors Ceremony upon request.
- Funeral Directors will be the reference person for requesting military participation in rendering Military Honors.
- Military personnel to perform this ceremony shall consist of two or more uniformed members of the Armed Forces, with at least one member from the service in which the deceased Veteran served.
- Members of Veterans Service Organizations (VSO) are encouraged to participate in rendering Military Honors and to augment military funeral details when requested. The law allows reimbursement of expenses for members of VSOs, however, a final decision on reimbursement policy has not been established as yet. The Military Services have been requested to conduct training for those VSO elements which will be participating in providing Military Honors for a deceased Veteran.
- Members of the National Guard and Reserves are also encouraged to participate in Military Honors Ceremonies and will receive an allowance of $150/day as well as retirement points.

Due to the limited number of buglers in the Military Services, a recorded version of “Tapes” is often used. To ensure quality of playback, the Department of Defense has recorded the playing of “Taps” at Arlington National Cemetery on compact discs and made them available to Funeral Directors, to the VSOs, and to participating military units.

In addition, a table with covering and open Bible shall be placed with the Conductress and Color Bearers in their respective places. Titles used in the following are for Department, Conference, District and Post, Commander or Conference President, Chief of Staff or Sergeant-at-Arms.)

(Commander and Ladies Auxiliary President take their stations. The Commander calls the session to order with one rap of the gavel.)

Commander: Comrades, Ladies Auxiliary and friends, we meet at this time to honor the memory of our comrades and sisters who have answered the last call.

Ladies Auxiliary President: Color Bearers. Prepare the altar for the Memorial Ceremony.

(Motion to rise.)

(Color Bearers with Conductress retire and return with the Memorial Cloth, Bible and flowers.)

Ladies Auxiliary President: (Motion to be seated.)

Madam Conductress and Sergeant-at-Arms, you will see that there is no disturbance during the ceremony.

Conductress and Sergeant-at-Arms: Madam President, your orders will be obeyed.

Commander: I request the Chaplains to preside during this solemn ceremony.

VFW Chaplain and Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: Comrade Commander, we are at your service and shall endeavor to perform this solemn duty in the spirit of faith, hope and charity.

(Chaplains will assume the station.)

VFW Chaplain: We will now have the lighting of the POW/MIA candle and the Armed Forces Vigil candle by the Commander and the Ladies Auxiliary President.

(The Commander and the Ladies Auxiliary President will light the two appropriate candles escorted by the Sergeant-at-Arms. VFW Chaplain will offer a prayer.)

VFW Chaplain: O God, Almighty, Creator and Ruler of the Universe, some of our comrades and companions are prisoners of war and missing in action. Comfort them, we pray, in their isolation from their homes and loved ones; supply their needs and protect them from want and deprivation; strengthen and sustain them that they may face discouragement with courage and hardship with resolution. Grant that they may find patience to endure and peace in the knowledge of Your continuing presence.

O God, we ask that You will strengthen and protect all our members of the armed forces of the United States of America. In the day of battle, may they be courageous and strong, resourceful and capable, resolute and victorious. In the time of peace, may they serve with dignity and honor, as effective emissaries of good will for this Nation. May their devotion and loyalty to You and to their homeland inspire them in moments of challenge and comfort them in tribulation and long separations from loved ones. And, finally, we ask they may return safely to serve You and our Country in the days and years to come. Amen.

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: (Motion to rise.)

Comrades, Sisters and Friends, will you join me in singing one verse of "Nearer, My God, To Thee."

Nearer my God to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

E'en tho' it be a cross that raiseth me;

Still all my song shall be

Nearer my God to Thee!

Nearer my God to Thee!

Nearer to Thee!

(Motion to be seated.)

VFW Chaplain: Comrade Commander, to whom should we look for help in the battles of life?

Commander: “Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.”

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: Madam President of the Ladies Auxiliary, what assurances have we of a prolonged stay among the scenes and activities of life?

Ladies Auxiliary President: “For we are aliens and pilgrims before You, as were all our fathers; our days on earth are as a shadow and without hope.”

VFW Chaplain: Comrade Senior Vice Commander, have you a message of condolence for those bereaved?

Senior Vice Commander: As a father pities his children, so the Lord pities those who fear Him. For he knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust.

VFW Chaplain: What message has the Chaplain of the Ladies Auxiliary?

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: I have a message of hope that should inspire our comrades at this solemn moment and all through life. The message is from our sacred scriptures, assuring us that there is life after death and whoever is faithful to the end, shall inherit eternal life.

VFW Chaplain: Comrades and Sisters, we are thankful for these inspiring thoughts. Let us learn the lesson of the hour which is that we, too, are nearing the end of life’s pilgrimage and sooner or later these services may be held in our memory. Let us so live that when our summons comes we may depart with a good conscience, in the comfort of a sincere religion, belief in God, and perfect charity toward all mankind. Madam Chaplain, would you offer a prayer.

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: (Motion to rise.)

Let us pray. Our Father in Heaven, at this time of remembrance, we seek You, with whom there is no death. We ask You, in Your everlasting charity, to look down on these, Your servants, and give them health, strength and willingness to carry on the work of our beloved organization, which shall be an everlasting memorial to those comrades and sisters who have passed on. In Your great infinite wisdom and mercy, may we all meet again, and we shall praise Your name, now and forever. Amen.

(Motion to be seated.)

VFW Chaplain: Comrades and sisters, in commemorating the virtues of our departed heroes who served their country in time of need we now offer our symbolic tributes.

(Department Commander and Ladies Auxiliary President will proceed to the Altar. If the ceremony is for a Department, Conference or District, the respective commanders and presidents will stand and may present the flowers on the altar when their department or district is called.)

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: Comrade Commander and Madam President, what tribute have you to offer at this time?

Ladies Auxiliary President: These white flowers we bring as a token of the love we have for our departed Comrades and Sisters.

(Department Commander and Madam President return to their stations. Flowers may be presented by other Districts or Departments.)

VFW Chaplain: Comrade Adjutant and Madam Secretary will now call the Roll of deceased members. (Reading of the deceased members' names or numbers of deceased members in their respective Departments or Districts.)

(“Sleep Soldier Boy” or other appropriate music may be offered at this time.)

VFW Chaplain: (If there is a Memorial Speaker, the Department Chaplain will give an introduction.)

Ladies Auxiliary Chaplain: Let us sing “America.” (Motion to rise)

VFW Chaplain: Let us pray. Heavenly Father, as today we remember and honor the memory of our departed comrades and sisters, we are indeed grateful for their service and sacrifice. May we continue their efforts as courageous protectors and true guardians of freedom. Let us be masters of brotherly and sisterly love.

O Lord, guide us in the way of moral responsibility and enlighten us and make us true believers in justice and peace. Enkindle within us a flame of selfless, unwavering devotion to duty that we may never be found wanting in those qualities of spirit and mind which alone are able to preserve our homes, the peace of our Nation, and the tranquility of the world. Remember our departed comrades and sisters, O Lord, in Your mercy, and have compassion on us. Amen.

Sergeant-at-Arms: Attention Comrades and Sisters.

Present Arms! Comrade Bugler!

("Taps" will be played.)

Ladies Auxiliary President: Madam Conductress, you will retire the Memorial Cloth.

(Memorial Cloth is retired.)

VFW Chaplain: This now concludes our service.

THE HISTORY OF LOYALTY DAY

Loyalty Day is observed on May 1 in the United States. It is a day set aside for the reaffirmation of loyalty to the United States and for the recognition of the heritage of American freedom.

The holiday was first observed in 1921 as "Americanization Day," and was intended to counterbalance the celebration of Labor Day on May Day (May 1), an internationally celebrated holiday which was perceived as communist.

Loyalty Day is celebrated with parades and ceremonies in several U.S. communities, although many people in the United States remain unaware of it. Although a legal holiday, it is not a federal holiday, and is not commonly observed.

It was made an official holiday by the U.S. Congress on July 18, 1958 (Public Law 85-529). Following the passage of this law, President Dwight D. Eisenhower proclaimed May 1, 1959 the first official observance of Loyalty Day.

In 2007 President George W. Bush issued an official proclamation of the May 1, 2007 Loyalty Day in accordance with the 1958 Congressional declaration,[6] as have many of his predecessors:

- * Bill Clinton, proclamation 6556 (May 1, 1993)
- * George H. W. Bush, proclamation 5962 (April 28, 1989)
- * Ronald Reagan, proclamation 4836 (April 14, 1981)
- * Jimmy Carter, proclamation 4493 (March 23, 1977)
- * Gerald Ford, proclamation 4354 (March 4, 1975)
- * John F. Kennedy, proclamation 3528 (April 18, 1963)

THE HISTORY OF MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day was originally known as Decoration Day. It was a time set aside to honor the nation's Civil War dead by "decorating" their graves. It was first observed on May 30, 1868, to commemorate the sacrifices of Civil War soldiers. During this first celebration of Decoration Day, General James Garfield made a speech at Arlington National Cemetery after which 5,000 participants helped to decorate the graves of the more than 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers buried in the cemetery.

This 1868 celebration inspired local observances in several towns throughout America. By the late 1800s, many communities across the country had begun to celebrate Decoration Day and, after World War I, observances also began to honor those who had died in all of America's wars.

In 1966, the Federal government, under the direction of President Lyndon Johnson, declared Waterloo, New York, the official birthplace of Memorial Day. They chose Waterloo because the town had made Memorial Day an annual, community-wide event since their first celebration on May 5, 1866, during which businesses closed and residents decorated the graves of soldiers with flowers and flags. (Other towns have claimed to be the birthplace of this celebration including Boalsburg, Pennsylvania.)

In 1971, Congress declared Memorial Day a National Holiday to be celebrated the last Monday in May.

HISTORY OF THE TAPS

Of all the military bugle calls, none is so easily recognized or more apt to render emotion than Taps. Up to the Civil War, the traditional call at day's end was a tune, borrowed from the French, called Lights Out. In July of 1862, in the aftermath of the bloody Seven Days battles, hard on the loss of 600 men and wounded himself, Union General Daniel Adams Butterfield called the brigade bugler to his tent. He thought "Lights Out" was too formal and he wished to honor his men. Oliver Wilcox Norton, the bugler, tells the story, "...showing me some notes on a staff written in pencil on the back of an envelope, (he) asked me to sound them on my bugle. I did this several times, playing the music as written. He changed it somewhat, lengthening some notes and shortening others, but retaining the melody as he first gave it to me. After getting it to his satisfaction, he directed me to sound that call for Taps thereafter in place of the regulation call. The music was beautiful on that still summer night and was heard far beyond the limits of our Brigade. The next day I was visited by several buglers from neighboring Brigades, asking for copies of the music which I gladly furnished. The call was gradually taken up through the Army of the Potomac."

This more emotive and powerful Taps was soon adopted throughout the military. In 1874 it was officially recognized by the U.S. Army. It became standard at military funeral ceremonies in 1891. There is something singularly beautiful and appropriate in the music of this wonderful call. Its strains are melancholy, yet full of rest and peace. Its echoes linger in the heart long after its tones have ceased to vibrate in the air.
